As required by City Code section 2.22.040, the director, at a minimum, shall prepare quarterly reports consistent with California Penal Code section 832.7(c), relating to the number, kind, and status of all citizen complaints filed against police department personnel for review by the Sacramento community police review commission and the city council.

SUMMARY

The City of Sacramento’s Office of Public Safety Accountability (OPSA) encompasses oversight practitioners responsible for the investigation, review, and audit of allegations of misconduct involving the Sacramento Police Department (SPD) and the Sacramento Fire Department (SFD) personnel. OPSA ensures that investigations have been completed fairly, thoroughly, and objectively.

The Office of Public Safety Accountability continues its efforts in the improvement of policing and better serving the interests of the public. The goals and objectives of the office involves creating meaningful opportunities for the community to influence decisions that impact them, incorporating innovative and progressive ideas to resolve issues, explaining challenges and limitations, and ensuring outcomes meet goals while remaining inclusive and accessible.

OPSA MISSION

The Mission of the Office of Public Safety Accountability is to improve the relationship between the City's public safety departments and the community they protect and serve. We promote trust, excellence, transparency, and accountability through independent and impartial oversight of complaints related to public safety employee misconduct.

SPOTLIGHT: COMPLAINTS

- Complainant alleged that an officer used profanity during the interaction and violated police General Orders.
- Complainant alleged that her 15-year-old daughter was detained in a police vehicle with her breasts exposed. Complainant requested that her daughter be covered up, but the officer was angry and would not cover her up.
- Complainant alleged that she was assaulted by the grocery store manager and an officer observed the assault but did not do anything.
- Complainant alleged that she was pulled over by officers and ordered out of her vehicle. Officers ordered her out of vehicle with their guns drawn and her 8-year-old son was in the vehicle as well. Complainant advised that officers told her that they made a mistake and stopped the wrong vehicle. Complainant believes that the mistake should not have occurred.
- Complainant alleged that she was the victim of an unlawful search and seizure. Six officers occupying an unmarked vehicle pulled the complainant over while she was stopped at a red light. Officers frightened the complainant by knocking on her windows and reaching into her vehicle as she rolled her windows down. The complainant attempted to ask questions regarding why she was pulled over, but the officers ordered her out of the vehicle.
- Complainant alleged that another officer inappropriately touched her and attempted to kiss her while they were working an overtime assignment.
- Complainant alleged the 911 dispatcher failed to dispatch the police in a timely manner resulting in her being sexually assaulted.
- Complainant alleged that he visited police headquarters, and the officer was rude and condescending. The complainant requested to speak with a supervisor, but the officer refused to contact a supervisor.
- Complainant alleged that he contacted the police regarding a man that was providing drugs to the homeless. The complainant stated that the police did not take any action and laughed at him during the interaction. The complainant requested to speak with a supervisor and the supervisor failed to act but admitted that the officers were wrong.

REVIEWS

An overview of the OPSA review process can be found in the chart below.

Review Process Chart

REVIEWS

Under the direction, control, and supervision of the City of Sacramento Mayor and City of Sacramento City Council, the Office of Public Safety Accountability tracks and monitors any internal investigation, reviews completed investigations, and advises the Sacramento Police Chief of deficient investigations involving misconduct allegations against public safety personnel.

OPSA receives all police complaints, regardless of where the complaints are filed. After OPSA conducts a preliminary review of each alleged complaint, a determination is made as to whether the case will or will not be reviewed. OPSA documents the determination by sending a review form to the Sacramento Police Department Internal Affairs Division indicating whether the case will be reviewed or not reviewed. For all cases selected for oversight review, OPSA receives access to all investigative materials utilized to render a finding prior to discipline being imposed.

During Q4 of 2023, OPSA reviewed 45% of the completed investigations filed against the Sacramento Police Department. Of the completed investigations reviewed by OPSA, eight required further review.
