Resolution

of the City Council

Recognizing Kevin Beers

WHEREAS, Kevin Beers started working with the State of California as a mail clerk and progressed to managing the mailroom for the State Controller's Office; and

WHEREAS, Kevin Beers' equipment proficiency led to his recruitment as Service Manager in a new Branch Service office, which grew to 16 full time technicians and financially from an annual budget of $100,000 to more than $2,000,000; and

WHEREAS, Kevin Beers became involved in bingo when his daughter's fast pitch softball team needed to raise funds for equipment and travel expenses; and

WHEREAS, Kevin Beers served as President of their local softball league for three years, President of the regional association for three years and seven years as the Metro Sacramento Junior Olympic Commissioner for the Amateur Softball Association, with oversight of more than 6,000 youth players; and

WHEREAS, Kevin Beers joined the management team at Florin Road Bingo in 1993; and

WHEREAS, Kevin Beers serves as President of the Board of Sacramento Consolidated Charities, Vice President of the Florin Road Partnership Board and on the Board of Directors for the Florin Road Partnership.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby recognize Kevin Beers for his continued involvement with Sacramento Consolidated Charities and commend his service to the Florin Road Partnership.

ISSUED: This 28th Day of October 2003.
