LORRAINE MAGANA
CITY CLERK

April 11, 1980

Honorable Mayor and Members of the Council

Under the Charter, the City Clerk is responsible for the "records of the City". Traditionally the responsibility has only covered those records specifically kept in the Clerk's office or files.

After 131 years, we have run out of storage space! Under the authority given the Clerk in the Charter and in Resolution 76-181, the following records have been transferred to the Museum. The Clerk's Office still retains custody, however, the Museum is able to provide a better standard of care.

- North Sacramento City Records
- Council Minute Books - August 1, 1849 through 1945
- Council Minute Records - 1920 through 1969
- Miscellaneous documents and artifacts.

Documents on file in the Clerk's Office give specific details of the transfer.

Sincerely,

Joë Pappas
 Joë Pappas
