Mayor Kevin Johnson
Sacramento City Council
915 I St., 5th Floor
Sacramento, CA 95814

RE: Application for Appointment to the Sacramento Citizen Redistricting Commission

Honorable Mayor Johnson and City Council:

I am writing request appointment to the Sacramento Citizen Redistricting Commission.

I believe I have prepared myself for the appointment by engaging in activities and forums through which I have acquired a sense of the issues facing our community as well as the policy and legal framework within which our city grows.

My education consists of a BS in Restorative Development from Humboldt State University (a degree focusing on a combination of planning, policy, economics and engineering) and an MS in Community Development from UC Davis. At Davis, I focused my studies on community-based development approaches and stakeholder engagement models.

In 2004 I participated in the City of Sacramento's Planning Academy, gaining a fuller understanding of the issues and opportunities throughout our community. In 2005 I was honored to be appointed to the General Plan Advisory Committee (GPAC), where I chaired the Parks, Open Space, Public Health, Environmental and Regional Issues Subcommittee. Being on the GPAC gave me an excellent opportunity to not only watch, but take part in the development of the City's new plan. This first hand knowledge of the plans, policies, and the Council's intentions inherent in it position me well for ensuring its effective implementation. I was subsequently appointed to the Planning Commission in December of 2008 and since being on the Commission have had the opportunity to work with my fellow commissioners to help guide the development of our community.

My 8-years working for the State have led me to issues of planning, development and environmental integrity. I now am the Deputy Director for Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy at the California Energy Commission and serve on the Governor's Green Building Task Force. In the past, I ran the State Architect's Sustainable Schools program, started a Green Building Corps program for youth and coordinated the Governor's Climate Action Team group that developed the State's approach to land use and local government activities.

I believe my educational, professional and civic background has prepared me to be an effective member of the Commission.

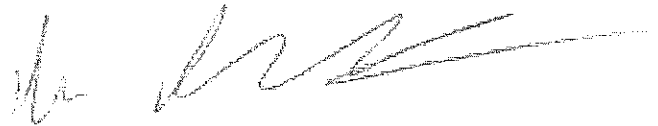

Panama Bartholomy

Capitol Avenue, Apartment F, Sacramento, CA, 95818

Our community is facing many issues in the near and distant future for which we must begin to plan. We need a political structure that empowers communities voice within the political discourse. The Commission is a crucial actor in ensuring our activities in these areas move us towards this direction. With your appointment I would be honored to work towards this goal.

Please find my application, resume and letters of support attached.

Sincerely,

City Redistricting Advisory Committee Application Attachment 1

I believe I have the background to make a positive contribution to the Redistricting Advisory Committee development of recommendation to the City Council relative to the modification of the Council District boundary lines in accordance with the 2010 Census.

I believe the District boundaries should respect the concerns communities of interest including neighborhoods and, ethnic and other minority groups to the greatest extent reasonable and practicable. Groups, The District boundaries can be an important factor in contributing to positive public involvement in the City governmental processes and programs.

Some communities of interest desire to included in a single or limited number of Districts thereby focusing their access and influence. Others may prefer to be included in several Districts to broaden their opportunity for meaningful involvement.

As will be described in Attachments below I have done work in and with nearly all communities in Sacramento for more than forty years.

I participated in workshops and hearing for the City Redistricting process in 2001. I became familiar with the City's computer program that was developed for use by the interested public for the determination of district boundaries. I believe this was an open, fair and reasonable process.

Attached is my application and resume for a position on the 2011 Sacramento Redistricting Citizens Advisory Committee.

While born and raised in St. Louis Missouri, I moved to Sacramento in 1973 to attend Navigator Training at Mather Air Force Base and after completing my military service, I moved back to this city in 1980 and have lived and worked here since that time. I would like the opportunity to give back to this city and help contribute to this redistricting effort that I believe is critical to a representative government.

Thank you for considering my application.

Please state the reason you would like to be a member of this board/commission (or attach):

Redistricting is a critical component in the democratic process. In 2010 I walked the entire 3rd city council district as a candidate gaining a keen understanding of the importance of maintaining neighborhoods and the sense of community we have in Sacramento as both a city and individual micro-neighborhood communities. As a REALTOR, I am intimately aware of the importance of our neighborhoods and the features of our city that make it both unique and special. My desire is to serve as a member of the committee is not driven by parochial politics. I love my city and it would be an honor and a pleasure working with citizens and committee members to listen, learn and develop a plan to present to the Council that will benefit all of Sacramento while protecting the interests and rights of all the diverse residents of our city.

Are you currently, or have you in the past, served on an advisory group? ☒ Yes ☐ No If yes, state the name of the group and how that service supports your application (or attach).

Please state the reason you would like to be a member of this board/commission (or attach):

As an attorney and legislative staffer, I have become familiar with the key law and policy issues related to redistricting at both the state and local levels. In 1991, I worked with a group of statewide Lesbian and Gay leaders to develop redistricting data regarding the LGBT community. These data used U.S. Census data regarding same sex couples, in conjunction with AIDS incidence data and other relevant sources. These data were submitted to both the Legislature and Supreme Court in that year and represented the first-ever submission of LGBT-related data for redistricting purposes.

I am committed to fair representation of all minority groups and bona fide communities of interest.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to support the application of Geoffrey Neill for his appointment to the Sacramento Redistricting Citizens Advisory Committee. In my capacity as Sacramento County Registrar of Voters, I have had the occasion to work with Mr. Neill in two capacities.

Primarily, I have collaborated with him on state legislative and policy issues related to elections. This opportunity results from my co-chairing the election officials' statewide legislative committee and his position as senior legislative analyst at the California State Association of Counties, where he is responsible for election issues, among others.

In his work with the counties' association, he has consistently proven himself capable, forthright, and concerned with the greater public good. He firmly grasps the principles that underpin election law, such as fairness, access, and equal protection.

Mr. Neill has also served for several years as a poll worker at elections in Sacramento County. He has served in the post of inspector for two elections, given overarching responsibility for one precinct's operations. Acting successfully in this capacity requires close attention to detail, excellent communication skills, and a fair measure of patience. I think it also shows his interest in civic responsibility and specifically the conduct of elections.

In all of my personal dealings with him, he is personable and respectful. He displays an eagerness to examine an issue from all sides before making a decision.

For all these reasons, I encourage you to consider strongly his application for appointment to the Redistricting Citizens Advisory Committee. Thank you.

If you have any further questions, I can be contacted at 916-875-6558.

Respectfully,

Jill LaVine, Registrar of Voters

Please state the reason you would like to be a member of this board/commission (or attach):

As a resident of Sacramento for almost 40 years, I have watched the evolution of the city from a moderate sized "government town" to a metropolis with a highly diversified economy. During this period a number of demographic changes have occurred, as reflected in the current imbalance in population among the nine City Council districts. It is clearly essential to address these balances, while remaining sensitive to the integrity of established neighborhoods. If selected to serve on the 2011 Sacramento Redistricting Citizens Advisory Committee, I feel well qualified to make a significant contribution to this effort. (Please see brief resume attached for details of my qualifications.)

Qualifications for Serving on 2011 Sacramento Redistricting Citizens Advisory Committee

As AVP for Academic Affairs at CSUS, I was not only involved in short- and long-term planning, but was also well aware of the intimate connection between desired planning outcomes and the resources needed to make those outcomes a reality. One of my responsibilities was oversight of the Office of Institutional Research. This involved a number of demographic studies of the student body, including detailed interpretation of statistical analyses. These interpretive skills would clearly be an asset for serving on the Redistricting Advisory Committee. Also as part of my job I was invited to join the Urban Land Institute, and I participated in a number of the Blueprint sessions to help insure that regional development occurs according to the principles of smart growth. More recently I participated in the workshop on the Metropolitan Transportation Plan 2035, and this past fall I completed the 10-week City of Sacramento Planning Academy. The planning course I just took from UC Davis has helped to put all these experiences into perspective, so that I have a good understanding of how city governance fits into the larger picture of the region and the state.

Perhaps equally important is the experience I have gained in serving on various boards and committees, often as chair. In settings as diverse as the Council for University Planning at CSUS, the Board of Directors of Junior Achievement of Sacramento, and the Board of the East Sacramento Improvement Association (ESIA), I have demonstrated the skills needed to help large, diverse groups work effectively and reach consensus. Recently I was elected President of the ESIA Board.

As a resident of Sacramento for almost 40 years, I have watched the evolution of the city from a moderate sized "government town" to a metropolis with a highly diversified economy. During this period a number of demographic changes have occurred, as reflected in the current imbalance in population among the nine City Council districts. It is clearly essential to address these balances, while remaining sensitive to the integrity of established neighborhoods. If selected to serve on the 2011 Sacramento Redistricting Citizens Advisory Committee, I feel well qualified to make a significant contribution to this effort.

Please state the reason you would like to be a member of this board/commission (or attach):

The City of Sacramento is a city of neighborhoods. Since I have either lived, worked, analyzed development opportunities, or built projects in most of the neighborhoods, my experience will provide a unique perspective on the characteristics of most of the distinct areas in the city. This experience will be helpful when analyzing the neighborhoods that could be added or taken away from the various council districts.

February 25, 2010

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Lola Acosta and I am the President of the League of Women Voters of Sacramento County.

With the release of this decade's census data, the process for fulfilling City of Sacramento's obligation to reapportion City Council Districts was determined with the Council's decision to approve the Sacramento Redistricting Citizens Advisory Committee. The League of Women Voters has worked for many years in the area of redistricting, fostering more transparent and fair redistricting processes and would like to be represented on this committee.

I've asked Miranda Perry of the League of Women Voters of Sacramento County Board of Directors to apply as our representative. Miranda is deeply interested in redistricting; it was the subject of her senior project in Geography at Humboldt State University. She is also a staff member of the League of Women Voters of California where she supports redistricting educational efforts, informing the public and the media of the State reapportionment process. Based on her knowledge of redistricting, I am delighted to have her represent the League of Women Voters of Sacramento County on the Sacramento Redistricting Citizens Advisory Committee.

Sincerely,

Lola Acosta, President
League of Women Voters of Sacramento County

Attachment B

REASON FOR DESIRE TO SERVE ON COMMITTEE

First, I have a great interest in redistricting; as a young adult, I did my senior project on reapportionment to earn my BA in Geography. In my professional life, as member of the board of directors for the League of Women Voters of Sacramento County, I have been involved in our organization's efforts to educate citizens about the importance of, and the process for, redistricting. I am also a staff member for the League of Women Voters of California, where I've worked in our efforts to advocate for redistricting reforms that promote fair and effective representation, transparency, and an independent commission responsible for drawing the lines.

I know I am knowledgeable enough to be a valuable member to Sacramento City's redistricting advisory committee, but as a representative of the League of Women Voters of Sacramento County, I will also bring with me my organization's commitment to unbiased nonpartisanship. Having such a representative on this advisory body will hopefully lend additional credibility of its recommendations.

Please state the reason you would like to be a member of this board/commission (or attach):

I have worked in and around the Capitol for 40 years and have seen the corrosive effects of gerrymandering first-hand. (In the one instance in my experience, after the 1990 census, when the Supreme Court created legislative districts, the outcome was outstanding.) I was very encouraged when the State established an independent redistricting commission and am anxious to see the results of its efforts. It's time the City took a similar approach and I would be honored to be part of that process.

Student: Shane Singh, 16, a junior at John F. Kennedy High School. A Sacramento resident since shortly after his birth in Folsom, Shane lives with his father, Sam, who works at several jobs; his mother, Shashi, a clerk with the state Franchise Tax Board; and brother Kevin, 11, and sister Reena, 8, students at Genevieve Dion Elementary School.

School activities: Shane is a member of the varsity soccer squad, the debate team and the California Scholastic Federation. He carries a 3.67 grade point average. He plans to major in political science at either a university or a military academy, and hopes eventually to be an attorney.

Other activities: Shane is in his third season as one of eight ball boys for the Sacramento Kings. He also is a Boy Scout and he officiates at soccer and baseball games.

What are your duties as a Kings ball boy? Before each game, I check with the equipment manager to see if anything special is needed for the visitors, like beer in the locker room. I check to make sure that towels, sodas and that kind of stuff is prepared for the locker rooms and the referees. During the game, I keep the towels ready for the players and put their jackets on them as they come out of the game. After the game, I collect all their uniforms and put them in a pile for the laundry, and see if the visitors need any assistance to load things onto the bus.

From your perspective at the bench, what do the Kings need to become a winning team? "They need to find one player who can have a career year and who can carry the rest of the team on his shoulders."

Who is the most underappreciated King? "Ralph Sampson. His knees may not be like they used to be, but he's always in there, lifting weights. Ralph works really hard, and he's a nice person; he doesn't deserve all the negative publicity he gets. He deserves more respect as a person."

Where do you see yourself 20 years from now? "After I establish a law practice I would like to be in politics. That's the only way to really help others, to make their lives a little better."

What do you worry about? "I worry about getting into a good college. It seems like everything I do is to get into a good college. Well, not everything, but a lot of it."

What leisure-time activity has been most rewarding for you? "Reading the newspaper, definitely. There's so much information in it. I read it for a half hour or so every morning. I just try to keep in touch with what's going on in the world. I'm the type of person who likes to browse through an almanac. We're the ones who will be running the world, so we should know what's going on."

What wild and crazy thing would you like to do? "I'd like to get into my car and drive across the country, just to get a feel of what life is like in other regions. California is so diverse compared to other places, which have more of one kind of people. I'd like to see what those people are like, to see what life is like in a place like that."

At a dinner party, what famous persons would you want sitting on each side of you? "Al Davis of the Raiders on one side, and Ronald Reagan on the other. Everyone hates Al Davis, they think he just tries to get all the money he can out of them. But I like the way he operates, he's an aggressive and crafty businessman, and he does it all to help his team win, which is what it's all about — winning. As to Ronald Reagan, when his presidency started there was a recession, but he steered us out of that and into prosperity. And he ended the Cold War. I think he's one of the more influential people of our time."

GOVERNOR PETE WILSON

January 23, 1996

To Whom It May Concern:

I write this letter in reference to Shane Singh who served as an intern in my Sacramento office during the summer of 1994 and my Washington, D.C. office during the summer of 1995. In both instances, his work was exemplary. Shane showed a remarkable attention to detail, and proved to be a responsible and resourceful member of my team.

In 1994, Shane served in my Cabinet office, the office which oversees my policy development and coordination at all state agencies. I had the occasion to meet Shane on his first day in the office, and I was impressed not only with his forthright demeanor, but also with his knowledge and concern regarding state issues.

In 1995, he joined my Washington, D.C. office which serves as the State's chief advocate with the Congress and Executive branch where he focused primarily on legislation affecting California's environment and natural resources. A self-starter with strong communication skills, Shane monitored legislative developments on proposed amendments to the Clean Air Act and reauthorization of the federal "Superfund" program. Shane showed great talent and determination in swiftly procuring information critical to the state's clean air and toxic waste clean-up programs. Finally, the analytical reasoning Shane demonstrated in his memoranda outlining key elements of the proposed Central Valley Project Reform Act and extensive stakeholder testimony on the bill was impressive.

I heartily recommend Shane in all his future endeavors. He has proven himself to be very intelligent and capable, and I am sure you will find that he exceeds every expectation.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern

Subject: Graduate Student Legal Assistant Shane Singh

I was Shane Singh's immediate supervisor at the Occupational Safety and Health Appeals Board during the summer of 1997 following his first year of law school. He showed qualities that would make him valuable in almost any area of legal practice. Shane was almost immediately able to become fully productive, quickly absorbing an unfamiliar area of law. He independently identified core issues and organized and presented them in a form that made the issues accessible. He immediately met a highly demanding production schedule, and maintained that level of productivity throughout his employment. He was able to proceed independently on cases the cases assigned to him even though this was a new area of law for him. Finally, Shane quickly established and maintained excellent personal relationships with everyone in the office, showing tact, sensitivity and consideration in all his contacts with all members of our staff.

I highly recommend him to prospective employers.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

I am the Supervising Deputy District Attorney of the Misdemeanor Unit of the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office. In that capacity, I directly supervised Shane Singh for one year as a work-study intern. Shane is a very dedicated, hardworking, conscientious employee. He quickly learned how to glean relevant facts from police reports and how to present those facts in court effectively. On a routine basis he represented the People in court at arraignment hearings, bail motions, pleas, suppression motions and pretrial conferences. His work was accurate and reliable. I would recommend Shane for a position in a law firm based on my experience with him. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at (916) 874-5235.

Maya Wallace – Statement of Purpose

I have lived in Sacramento for nearly a decade. During that time, I have watched it become a more diverse, inclusive and progressive city. I admire our city officials' commitment to making Sacramento a world-class locale and applaud steps taken thus far to move the city along this path. Given the recent shifts in the makeup of the city council, it is fortuitous that the census is complete and redistricting is necessitated now. I believe it is important to ensure that the city's new districts are drawn such that all of Sacramento's citizens have equal opportunity to have their views and needs represented. I believe strongly that a government is most effective when it considers the views of all its stakeholders.

In addition to my experiences as a long-time resident of Sacramento, I believe my professional skills as an independent, nonpartisan auditor and my natural disposition toward ensuring fairness will serve the redistricting committee well. As an auditor/evaluator, I am required to gather, understand and quickly analyze large amounts of data in a short amount of time. Furthermore, my work requires me to do so impartially, setting aside my preferences and beliefs in favor of the conclusions suggested by the data. However, my work is not without concern for constituents affected by its conclusions; these issues factor into the recommendations I suggest, and feasibility is a factor in those recommendations. In addition, I am familiar with and have conducted analysis of census data for several projects. Finally, I have training as a facilitator through the Center for Collaborative Policy and have observed and participated in public decision-making processes that are relevant to the work I anticipate the city's redistricting commission citizen advisory panel will be required to do.

We were there as adults to assist when asked for our opinions. I do believe that was my most challenging responsibility as there were times when I could see they were heading down a slightly bumpy road and had to wait and be asked my opinion. I also attempted to always ask them for other possible solutions if the first was an undesired choice.

2. As a teen, my old horse club had a junior division. I was elected the teen advisor a few times so would report at the general meetings what the youth group was up to and what we would like to do during the following month (i.e., trail ride, gymkhana play days). It not only increased membership but made us feel our voice was relevant and being heard.

3. Horse friends and my family got together and started a horse club. I had 5 children of my own and wanted our new club to include a junior division. Because it was my idea, they elected me advisor to the group for a few years. I advised under the same criteria as set forth by the 4-H Council as it seemed to stimulate many positive attributes in children and teens. It worked just as well with the horse club's juniors as they also learned leadership, responsibility, how to handle challenges, both positive and negative, in a logical manner, etc.

4. I have always volunteered at local SPCAs and/or individual groups to foster all sorts of animals. Neighbors brought me all sorts of critters-their horses, dogs, cats, rabbits, pet rats, and wild or stray animals that might include the occasional possum, raccoon, or wolf pup.

Do you, or an immediate family member, have any relationship (professional, financial, other) that may present a potential conflict of interest for this advisory group? Yes No X If yes, please explain:

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

You may also attach a resume reflecting experience, community activities or other qualifications not listed below that would be helpful to the Council in evaluating your application.

EDUCATION:

I graduated from El Camino High School in 1966. I was a re-entry student at American River College in 1985, graduating valedictorian in 1987. I received my BA from UC Davis in 1991 with a GPA of 3.92, in the top 2% of my class. I majored in psychology, and minored in Art History. I graduated with Highest Honors. My Honors Thesis was titled, "A Psychological Profile of the Cretan People as Seen Through Their Art-With an Analysis of Their Contemporaries, the Mesopotamians and Egyptians". I was one of only 4 applicants accepted to UC Davis' School Psychology program. My Masters Thesis was titled "The Advantages of Being Learning Disabled and/or Bilingual". Extraordinary circumstances forced me to move out of the area before I could complete my last 6 units or I would have graduated that spring with a 3.95 GPA and been awarded my teaching credential and certified as a school psychologist. After a recent conversation with one of my past UCD professors, I am now planning to follow his advice and return to UCD to finish my Masters in School Psych and start working toward an application for their Art History Masters Program with, hopefully, Dr. J. Ruda as my advisor. With him as my inspiration, I am currently fine-tuning my third Masters' Thesis draft titled "Peter Paul Rubens and His Horses". I have been the recipient of many academic awards, including several High and Highest Honors acknowledgements. I was also chosen as one of only 2,000 Highest Honors students, chosen by our Chancellors/Deans from across the US to be included in the annual list of United States Highest Honors Students for that year. I was also invited to join several honors groups, including Golden Key Club at UCD. I was Student Body Vice President and Secretary at American River. Because I never got a grade lower than an A on term papers at either American River or UC Davis, I believe it is a fair statement that I am qualified to do in-depth research in multiple areas.

I am female and white.

It is my understanding that I had until 5 PM to send this to you. My apologies for sending it so last minute. I have been trying to work on it ever since I heard about this opportunity, as we discussed on the phone. I ended up having to do it this way which took even longer to first, figure out how, then to actually do it.

Thank you so much for all your help and patience. I really appreciate all you have done to allow me to get this form to you on time. You truly went above and beyond to help me. And have a wonderful weekend. You deserve it.

Most Sincerely,
Kathileen M. Mello
