

APPLICATION FOR PERMIT TO BUILD

28

Street No. 1620-179 Lot 2 1/2 S 1/2 Block Q 29

Owner R D Butler Address 1620-179

Architect Address

Contractor Address

Kind of Building

Foundation

Permit No. 3500
Date 3/1/23
District 22

Posts Girder Span Mud Sills

1st Floor 2nd Floor 3rd Floor 4th Floor 5th Floor 6th Floor

Joists

Max. Span

Bearing Partitions

Non Bearing Part'ns

Story Height

Outside Walls

Ceiling Joists Span

Roof Rafters

Water Heater Chimney

Size of Building—Length Width Height

It is hereby agreed that this building will be constructed in conformity with the Ordinances of the City of Sacramento and the Laws of the State of California.

Estimated Cost, $ 500

Plans must be submitted

[Signature]

Owner or Owner's Representative.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in the context of public administration or financial reporting. The text suggests that clear documentation helps in identifying trends, detecting anomalies, and ensuring compliance with relevant regulations and standards.

2. The second part of the document addresses the challenges associated with data collection and analysis. It highlights that gathering comprehensive data can be a complex and time-consuming process, often involving multiple stakeholders and diverse data sources. The text notes that while modern technology offers advanced tools for data management, the quality and consistency of the data remain significant concerns. It stresses the need for robust data governance policies to ensure the integrity and reliability of the information used for decision-making.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the role of communication and collaboration in achieving organizational goals. It argues that effective communication is not just about conveying information but also about fostering a shared vision and encouraging teamwork. The text suggests that regular communication channels, such as meetings and reports, are crucial for keeping everyone aligned and informed. Additionally, it emphasizes the importance of listening to feedback and being open to different perspectives, as this can lead to more innovative solutions and better overall performance.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the impact of external factors on organizational success. It notes that organizations do not operate in a vacuum and are often influenced by changes in the market, technology, and regulatory environment. The text suggests that organizations should maintain a high level of flexibility and adaptability to respond to these external changes effectively. It also highlights the importance of staying informed about industry trends and developments, as this can help organizations anticipate challenges and seize opportunities before their competitors.

5. The fifth and final part of the document concludes by summarizing the key points discussed and offering some final thoughts on the path forward. It reiterates that success is achieved through a combination of accurate record-keeping, effective data management, strong communication, and the ability to adapt to external changes. The text encourages organizations to continue to invest in these areas and to maintain a commitment to excellence and continuous improvement. It ends with a positive outlook, suggesting that with the right strategies and mindset, organizations can overcome any challenges and achieve their long-term goals.