Recognizing Precious Craft

WHEREAS, Precious Craft has lived in Sacramento since 1966; and

WHEREAS, Precious Craft earned Bachelor of Arts and Master of Music Education degrees, received seminary training, and has been teaching for 50 years in grade levels from preschool to college; and

WHEREAS, having been first introduced to classical music as an elementary school student, Precious Craft has always had a connection to music through church and community choirs, public education, and private music lessons; and

WHEREAS, Precious Craft currently has four choirs, including the Cosumnes River College Gospel Choir, the Voices of Faith, the Shattuck Avenue United Methodist Choir, and the annual Christmas Choir; and

WHEREAS, Precious Craft has welcomed any and all members of the community to join her choirs and celebrate together through music, providing inspirational concerts throughout the Sacramento region to churches of all denominations, as well as civic and community activities; and

WHEREAS, Precious Craft believes that gospel music heightens the spiritual and social consciousness of performers and listeners, thereby serving as a wonderful vehicle for teaching tolerance and understanding of all people.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby recognize Precious Craft for her energy and devotion, bringing all people together through her gospel choirs.

ISSUED: This 7th Day of March 2002.
