I am protesting the undulations that are to be put on Moddison Ave. in River Park.

Although there have been neighborhood meetings for residents opinions, I feel I am speaking for the "silent majority" in opposition to the undulations.

I agree Moddison Ave. does have a speeding problem, but feel the proposed undulations are not the answer. Moddison Ave is a dead end street and therefore is primarily used by residents who will not even be able to go home at the legal speed of 25 mph without perhaps endangering their car or being bounced around inside.
