

Proclamation

Issued by the Mayor

2.1

Business, School, Government Partnership Week October 18 - 24, 1998

WHEREAS, partnerships among schools, business, and government provide opportunities for sharing expertise and resources for the benefit of children; and

WHEREAS, partnerships are a cost-effective way to enhance education and provide positive role models for children; and

WHEREAS, business men and women can make direct investments in the lives of children and the community by pledging time, knowledge, and materials to schools, and can influence positively the development of a well-trained work force; and

WHEREAS, partnerships result in teamwork between business, government and education that strengthens the entire fabric of our society; and

WHEREAS, the Citizenship & Law-Related Education Center, sponsor of the Principal for a Day program that provides opportunities for partnerships among business, government, and schools, will celebrate its fourteenth annual event on October 20, 1998.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joe Serna, Jr., Mayor of the City of Sacramento, do hereby proclaim the week of October 18-24, 1998 to be Business, School, Government Partnership Week.

ISSUED: This 13th Day of October 1998.
