COMMENDING WILLIAM BOBOLIS

WHEREAS, William Bobolis was born in Ogden, Utah to parents who immigrated to the United States from Megali Valsa, Corinth, Greece; and

WHEREAS, Bill received his bachelor's degree in music education from the University of Utah, and his master's degree in voice from the California State University, Sacramento; and

WHEREAS, Bill has been the choir director at the Annunciation Church in Sacramento for the past 24 years, during which time the choir has doubled its membership becoming one of the largest choirs in the Western Choir Federation, and attained an enviable record of musical excellence and achievement; and

WHEREAS, Bill has been a music educator for 35 years, directing numerous high school choirs which participated in various music festivals, and consistently received excellent and superior ratings; and

WHEREAS, Bill is presently the director of choral music and Music Department Chairperson at Sacramento High School; and

WHEREAS, Bill's commitment to musical and artistic excellence is shared with his wife, Evelyn, who is the church organist and his daughters Stephanie, Kristie and Jamie, all members of the church choir;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Mayor and the Council of the City of Sacramento that we commend William Bobolis for the outstanding contributions he has made to the Sacramento community and congratulate him on this honourous occasion of receiving the prestigious Medal of Saint Paul.

ISSUED: This 13th day of October, 1987.
