Adjournment

At the request of the board, today's meeting is being adjourned in honor of one of Sacramento's leaders, Donna Giles. Donna passed away recently, and will be greatly missed. As you know, among her many accomplishments, Donna was a former president of the Civil Service Board and the first Black woman to serve the City as a department head. Donna exemplified the best qualities of public servants – honesty, integrity, and a strong work ethic – and as a role model for a generation of people in Sacramento. I take this opportunity to recognize the contributions she has made, not only to the people of Sacramento, but to the government as well.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 1:37 p.m. to meet again at the call of the Chair.
