PROFILE

I, Xochimilco Salazar, have devoted the past seven years of my life to public service and legislation with unwavering commitment. My passion for creating positive change with a tireless work ethic has propelled me through countless opportunities to provide change in the community I serve. With each passing year, I have grown more deeply dedicated to serving my community and advocating for policies that uplift those in need. My determination to continue making a difference is matched only by my resolve to work even harder, knowing that there are still countless opportunities to improve the lives of others through my service.
