Tellabration Week November 18-24, 2002

WHEREAS, Tellabration is a worldwide benefit event held in communities throughout the world by a network of volunteers eager to build grassroots support for storytelling; and

WHEREAS, the original scope of Tellabration was intended for adult audiences but has since evolved into whatever the community feels benefits its residents; and

WHEREAS, Tellabration began in 1988 and is open to everyone – storytelling organizations and centers, schools, libraries, colleges and universities, and story-swap groups; and

WHEREAS, this year's event is sponsored by the Sacramento Storytellers Guild and hosted by the Belle Coolidge and Arden-Demink Libraries; and

WHEREAS, Tellabration is an exciting way to spread the word about storytelling so that people, especially adults, will experience its joys, become more aware of its importance, and choose to support it.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento that we do hereby proclaim November 18-24, 2002 as Tellabration Week in Sacramento and urge its residents to participate in the planned activities.

ISSUED: This 19th Day of November 2002.
